Punctuate Dialogue

If the speaker is identified first, place a comma after the speaker's tag, before the first quotation mark. If the speaker is identified after the dialogue, place a comma inside the final quotation mark (do not add a comma if the dialogue ends in a question mark or exclamation point). Note that a question mark or an exclamation point goes inside the final quotation mark only if it is part of the dialogue.

> Sayeed asked, "Who wants to go to the park tomorrow?"
>
> "I'm free tomorrow," Marco said.
>
> "Me, too!" said Marco's sister.

Write C if the sentence is punctuated correctly. Write X if it is not, and then rewrite the sentence using correct punctuation and capitalization.

1. _____ Which bus stops at Market Street? Mom asked.

_____

2. _____ Dad answered, "I think the Blue Line goes to Market Street."

_____

3. _____ I'm pretty sure the Blue Line ends before Market Street, I said.

_____

4. _____ Mom asked are you sure?

_____

5. _____ "I think so, but let's check the map," I said.

_____

6. _____ Dad agreed and said, that would make sense.

_____