Amazing Dogs

German Shepherds are large dogs with a lot of talent. They are useful in many ways.

They make great family pets because they are easy to train and very loyal. They are big, strong, and fast, but also gentle with children.

They will protect their owners if there is danger.

Also, they are very smart. They are at the top of the list of dog breeds with high intelligence. Police and security agents use them to help find criminals. The dogs can track things down using their noses. The military has also used German Shepherds.
