

Wacky Science Facts

Directions:

- Use the key terms of the questions to research an answer.
- Be sure to only use a reputable source...try to avoid any .com sites.
 - Write the source website on the line provided
 - Only write the website name up to the .com; .gov; .org; .edu

1. How do butterflies taste things?

Source: _____

2. The loudest sound of any living thing is made by what animal?

Source: _____

3. Where are a cricket's ears located?

Source: _____

4. All of the planets in our solar system spin counter-clockwise, except one. Which one spins clockwise?

Source: _____

5. How long does sunlight take to travel from the Sun to the Earth?

Source: _____

6. A beaver's teeth never stop doing what?

Source: _____

7. How hot is a bolt of lightning? How hot is lava?

Source: _____

8. Which fish can live out of water for several years? How many years?

Source: _____

9. Where is the longest-lasting light bulb located and what is its name?

Source: _____

10. What year was the lightbulb turned on? How many years has it been shining?

Source: _____

Your turn: Research science fun facts and write one question of your own.

Source: _____

SCIENCE FUN FACT:

When you were born, you had more than 300 bones. As you grew, some of the bones fused together. An adult has far fewer bones than a baby - 206 in all

SOURCE

COOL
Science Experiments
HEADQUARTERS