

My Ideal Vacation Project-Based Learning

Thanksgiving Break is almost here! For some students, this week is spent traveling with their families to see new places around California. When adults plan a vacation, they take many factors into consideration.

Imagine that you get to pick the vacation spot this Thanksgiving Break! Do you want to hike a mountain? Or maybe seek a desert oasis? Convince your parents that your location is perfect for your family vacation. Pick a California State Park or a National Park in California. Conduct research and create a pamphlet/brochure.

My ideal vacation spot: _____

Where is it located?

- Name the region (coast, valley, mountain, desert) _____
- Mark your park on a map of California
- How many miles is it from La Verne? (Use Google Maps) _____
- How long would it take you to drive there? (Use Google Maps) _____
- What is the nearest major city? _____
- What county is your park located? _____
