

Weather Idioms

Write the letter for the idiom that matches each numbered question.

- | A | B |
|---|---|
| _____ 1. raining cats and dogs | a) have unrealistic or impractical ideas |
| _____ 2. have a face like thunder | b) being very quick |
| _____ 3. be storm in a teacup | c) heavy rain / heavy showers |
| _____ 4. have one's head in the clouds | d) try to achieve the impossible |
| _____ 5. chasing rainbows | e) being clearly very angry and upset |
| _____ 6. be snowed under | f) having too much to do |
| _____ 7. be lightning fast | g) feeling unwell, sad or lacking energy |
| _____ 8. be under the weather | h) worry too much about unimportant matters |
| _____ 9. be a fair-weather friend | i) a happy person who makes others feel happy |
| _____ 10. be a ray of sunshine | j) make good use of an opportunity |
| _____ 11. make hay while the sun shines | k) people don't trust you for something you have done |
| _____ 12. be under a cloud | l) someone who is a friend when it's easy to be one |
| _____ 13. weather the storm | m) deal successfully with a difficult situation |

Weather Idioms: Replace the underlined section with a weather idiom from section A above.

A friend who is only interested in you when all is going well never helps you in an emergency.

We only have a short holiday. So, let's profit from it.

School gave us so much homework. I have so much to do!

Jim was very fast in the race.

Mike looked very angry when he heard the news.