

Fun with New Words

Dear Family,

During the week of _____, your child will be studying the meanings of the following words. As students learn the words in this vocabulary program, they will become better at expressing themselves in speech and writing. Please try to use these words as often as you can during the week. Thank you for your help.

effortless

If something you do is effortless, you do it easily and well.

Invite your child to show you three things that they can do effortlessly.

exhibition

An exhibition is an event where either interesting things or a skillful activity is displayed.

Ask your child to put on an exhibition of things they do well.

native

Someone who is a native of a particular country, state, or region was born and grew up there.

Help your child name all the areas they are a native of.

coast

A vehicle that is coasting keeps going without using any power to move it.

Work with your child to point out things you see that might be coasting.

proWess

Someone's prowess is their great skill at doing something.

Ask your child to show you something they can do with prowess.

dissuade

If you dissuade someone from doing something, you convince them not to do it.

Tickle your child. Then ask them to dissuade you from doing it.

bliss

Bliss is complete happiness.

Ask your child to act blissful after eating something they really like.

diminutive

If you call someone or something diminutive, you mean that they are very small.

Use diminutive when talking with your child about things that are small.
