

Name: _____ Date: _____

Open Response Question

Use this week's issue of Studies Weekly to help you answer this question. Include the page number and the article title that helped you find the answer in your response.

What is absolute location? How is it used?

---

---

---

Multiple Choice Question

Which of the following is NOT a continent?

- A. Asia
- B. Australia
- C. India
- D. North America

Multiple Choice Question

The Earth is divided into four sections called _____.

- A. meridians
- B. equator
- C. sectors
- D. hemispheres

Multiple Choice Question

Lines of latitude run across the Earth from east to west. Each line is called a(n)

_____.

- A. parallel
- B. meridian
- C. equator
- D. prime meridian

Multiple Choice Question

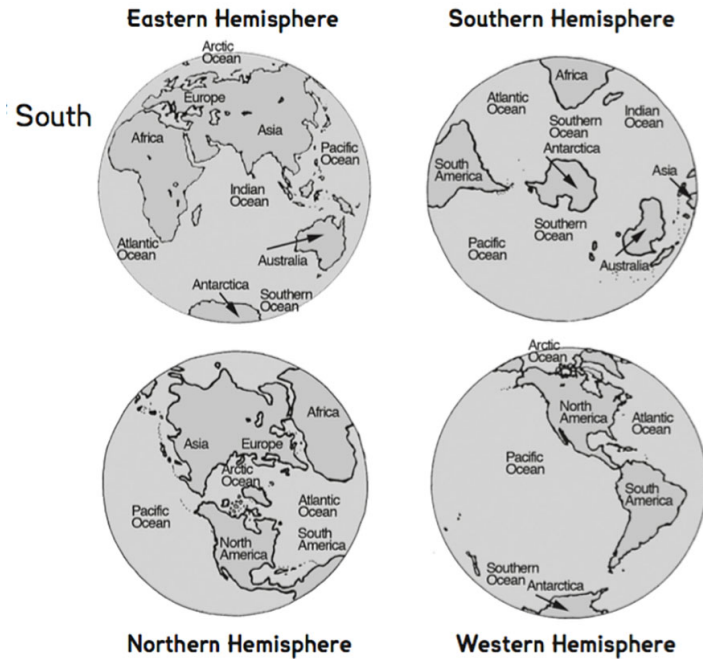

Sacramento, California, is located at 38°N, 121°W. Which continent is it found on?

- A. South America
- B. North America
- C. Europe
- D. Asia

Multiple Choice Question

Australia, Antarctica and most of South America are located in which hemisphere?

- A. Northern Hemisphere
- B. Southern Hemisphere
- C. Eastern Hemisphere
- D. Western Hemisphere